It is a pleasure for the Washingtonian Staff to dedicate the Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Three Washingtonian to the future of Washington High School.

This year we welcomed two new administrators, Mr. Daryl Talken, principal, and Mr. Mark Adams, assistant principal. A change in administration often brings a change in campus atmosphere. We have witnessed many new clubs and organizations. We have seen the return of Music and Drama to our campus. Faculty participation with the Student Body is undergoing a tremendous upsurge.

Washington's future is being shaped now. The students now have more opportunities to become involved with their school than ever before. Let Our epitaph read, "We gave to our school, for our future."

HELLO DANCE

The 1982-1983 school year surprisingly started off with a very successful ASB sponsored HELLO DANCE which took place on the 10th of September, 1982, at our very own WHS South Gym. The MUSIC MASTERS mobil sound system supplied the sounds. The dance hours extended from 8-11 p.m., with a surprisingly large student turnout. The Class of 1983 showed off their well known class spirit by dressing up for the occasion; shorts, ties, blazers, tennis shoes and even so far as to look "punk". Though the ASB treasury did not make much money out of the dance, the profit lies in how much school spirit was displayed by the students here at WHS. And for those who weren't there, ... remember next year ...

If you saw cowboys and Indians running around school this year, they were probably members of the junior class on the first day of spirit week. Why? Well, that was the theme of the junior skit, of course! Entitled "How WHS Was Won", the class of 1984 took us from a modern day classroom scene, compete with rah-rahs, jocks and nurds, back into history where we saw spirited Husky settlers and calvary beat the brightly painted indian Warriors. The crowd's favorite part of the Junior skit, however, was watching the numerous "cattle" crawling all over the hay-strewn floor! Now, if you didn't see Juniors dressed up as Cowboys or Indians, maybe you saw them dressed as punkers, looking gumby, all decked out in formal wear, or in toga's and Burger King crowns, because these outfits were all part of the Junior class' show of spirit that week. And an incredible amount of spirit it was, pulling the class of '84 into the second place spot this year.

On Tuesday, the Sophomores showed us their spirit with video games as the theme for their skit. They sang and danced and entertained us in tune to such games as Asteroids, Pac-Man, Donkey Kong, and Space Invaders, which we can all relate to. Although their spirit was high, the Sophomores took only a fourth place spot in the Spirit Week competition. Well, they still have two more years to work their way to number one, and were off to a good start with some excellent dress up days this year including beach day, punk day, generic day, and gumby day. Better luck next year to the class of 1985. Keep your spirit high!

FRESHMEN

The Freshman class went all out for Spirit Week this year, proving that it's not only upperclassmen that have spirit. But the yearbook staff must extend sincere apologies for an unfortunate accident in which all the color pictures of the freshman skit were lost. Luckily, there were black and white photos taken that Wednesday, as the class presented to us a rousing football game — Washington vs. Mission — in 1950's style. The class of '86 showed tremendous spirit in their skit, complete with music like "Jailhouse Rock" and other '50's faves, and were able to bring the other classes into the excitement of the game, in which the Huskies naturally triumphed! The judges enjoyed pizza while watching the show, and saw the freshman showing spirit all through the week dressed up in space clothes, togas, pajamas, and school colors.

1. Husky cheerleaders do their song and dance. 2. Drumming up Husky spirit! 3. The happy, triumphant crowd. 4. Husky ball players. 5. The class of 1986 celebrates spirit.

2

The Senior class started out Spirit Week with a show of peace and love on '60's day, and kept the spirit level high all week, leading them to a first place victory. Other days, seniors were seen dressed in war attire, all wrapped up in foil, clothed in tourist garb, (complete with cameras, maps, and bermuda shorts), and dressed up in Angel and Devil costumes for their skit, "Heaven and the Huskies", presented on Thursday. In Husky heaven, a traitor named Lucy was exiled to Hell, which she named Mission after stealing the Golden Husky for her own selfish kingdom. After several attempts to rescue the Husky, Lord I and his subjects finally succeeded, proving once and for all that Husky spirit always triumphs! And Husky spirit was shown exceptionally by the senior class throughout the week. They really worked together, showed a lot of class unity, and had a whole bunch of fun doing it. They made it fun for the judges, too. After bringing them in by wheelchair, the class of 1983 served the judges chicken crepes along with Sparkling cider and a dessert.

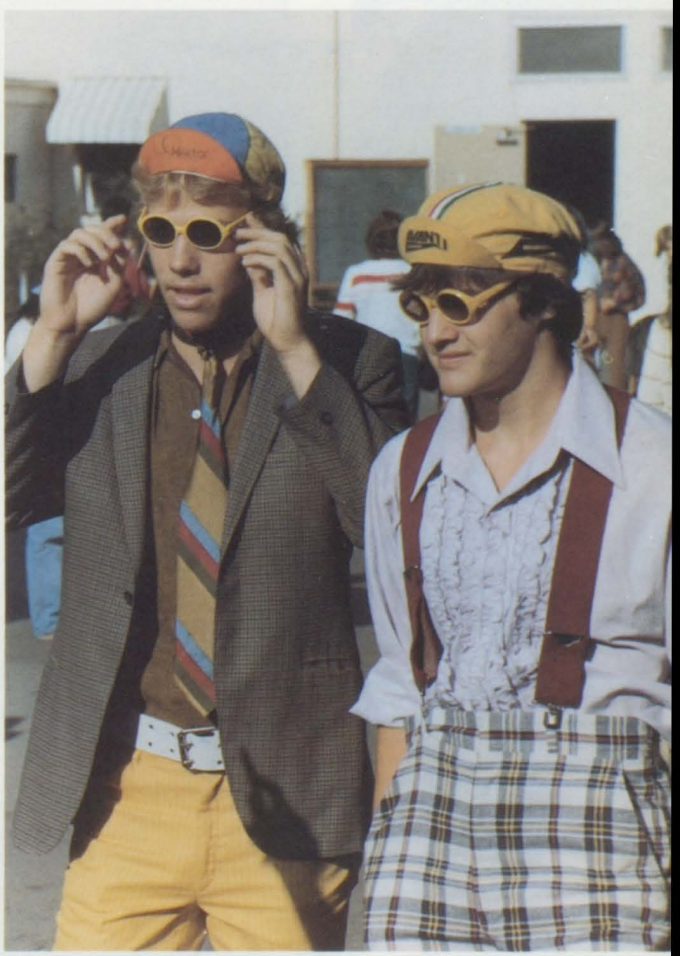
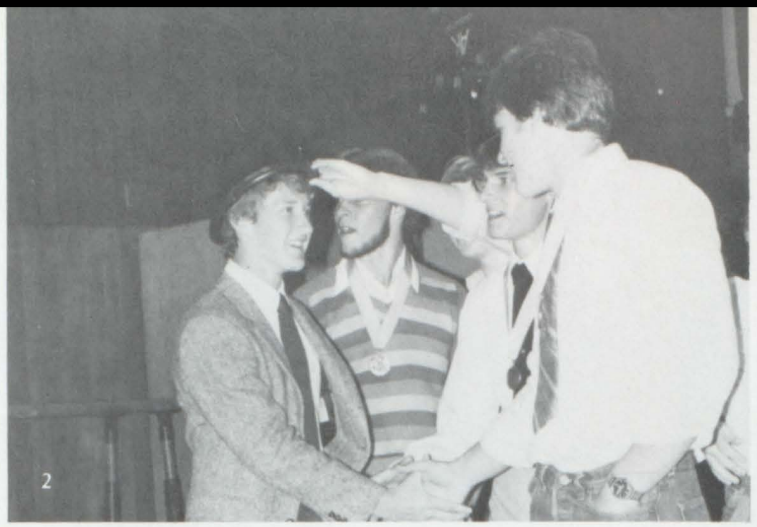
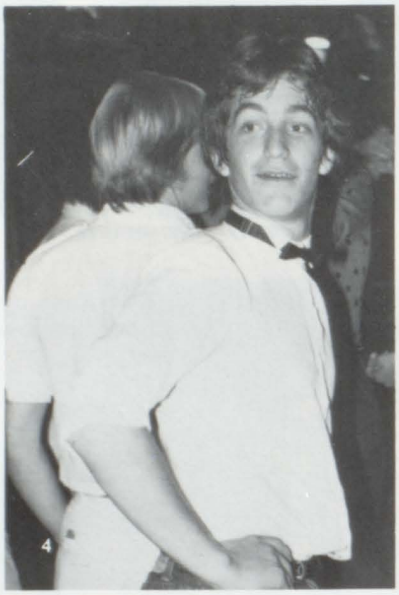
HUSKY SPIRIT!







HOMECOMING DANCE '82

This year's Homecoming dance was held in the South Gym on Friday, October 2. From 9-11 p.m. strange howling noises could be heard from the dancers, (of course,) and also from the "Beast of the Bay", radio station KMEL, whose Tony Kilbert was our guest D.J. for the evening. KMEL held several dance contests during the dance, presenting the winners with KMEL t-shirts and posters. But the highlight of the evening was midway through when the lights went on (how could that be good?) for the announcement of the new Mr. Husky. 1981 Mr. Husky, Don Ting, was on hand to present the award to Ben Holder, who, after freeing himself from a hundred girls and kisses, stepped up to the platform to give a warm and spirited acceptance speech. All in all, it was an exciting evening for everyone!

1. It's okay, Jeff. We love you too! 2. "Good job, dude!" 3. "Who, Me?" 4. Where'd she go, Sean? 5. Ben and T.K. Right on! 6. Baron Von Stocker III? 7. High society - complete with Vans and Vuarnets.

BEN HOLDER

Being elected Mr. Husky 1982 was a great surprise and honor for Ben Holder, who considers Washington the center of his life. Ben makes that fact obvious in almost everything he does. He has been on the swim team for all four years, held major roles in Spirit Week since Freshman year, and has been an A-period representative. Although his list of "credits" is not overwhelming, it doesn't need to be, because Ben is one of those people who is always there, wherever that may be. Whether it's working in the snack bar at a football game or helping to decorate for Spirit Week, you'll find Ben. And that is what makes Ben such a deserving Mr. Husky. He adds so much life and fun to every activity with just his personality. He cheers us on at football games and makes the whole crowd come alive, and it is not unlikely to find him there in a cheerleading uniform or with a big orange "W" painted on his chest. That is the kind of Mr. Husky that really represents the essence and spirit of WHS. Thanks Ben!

HOMECOMING QUEEN '82

The evening of October 23, 1982 was an extremely tense and exciting one for six very special girls. These were, of course, the finalists for Homecoming Queen. Though each girl had accomplished so much in her own way, everyone knew that only one of them could win the title. The tension was almost unbearable at halftime of the Varsity game until great screams of joy rang through the audience as Mr. Stelle finally announced that the new Queen was . . . Allison Hottle! All the princesses were great people, but the school knew that their one choice was Allison. She has been deeply involved with the school since her freshman year when she was elected class Secretary. From the start, her dedication grew rapidly and she went on to become an A-period representative, President of the Sophomore class, a member of CSF, ASB Treasurer, PTSA representative, ASB Secretary, and editor of the yearbook. In addition, Allison participated in Spirit Week activities, helped on numerous committees, is an officer for the new Ski Club, attended leadership conferences, and generally put an enormous amount of time, energy, and effort into everything she did for the school. Allison is always an active member of Student Council, unafraid to stand up for the students' rights and fight the system for fair rules and treatment. Many people don't realize all the dedication and service Allison has contributed to Washington High School and all she has done for us, the rest of the student body. But maybe the title of Homecoming Queen, which was a big surprise and true honor for Allison, will give her the credit she truly deserves.

International Club is an active group that gets together to learn about other countries and cultures.

This year they've had a Halloween party in which everyone came dressed in a costume representing a different country. In February, they sponsored a carnation sale for Valentine's Day. It was very profitable, over a hundred dollars was made. In the spring, International Club planned to spend the earned money on a trip to San Francisco, including a visit to Chinatown.

THE OUTCASTS OF POKER FLAT

Drama is back! Though on a smaller scale than before, we are again involved with the Arts of the Theatre. Drama Classes this year did many Monologues, Scenes, and short Skits. Drama Class also performed a short one-act Christmas play entitled, "Waiting for the Christmas Guest". The second semester Drama Class did a Reading Theatre selection entitled, "The Outcasts of Poker Flat". Seventy-five students took part this year in Drama Classes. We have enjoyed performing for the student body. More than one-third of the student body was the drama students in action this year.

BOOSTER CLUB

The Washington High School Booster Club. What is it? Who is it made of? Why are they there? When do they meet? All of these questions have answers, but how many of the student body can answer them? Probably not many, after this, each of you can answer them and get involved.

The booster club is made up of W.H.S. parents who have children that participate in sports. They support the sports by attending the games and having fund raisers, which give the sports the money they need to support themselves.

They had fund raisers going all year round. They included: a flea market, pizza nights, inventories at department stores, pancake breakfasts and dances. This year the booster club started off in debt, but were able to pay it off and still support W.H.S. athletics.

Some of the money the booster club makes goes to: new team uniforms, athletic equipment, transportation for pre-season, out-of-town games, and if students look promising, even special lessons, in that sport in which they're interested.

The booster club meets the first Tuesday night of each month. Tell your parents and let them become involved in the future.

DARYL TALKEN, PRINCIPAL

Washington High School stands for excellence. Its standards and traditions have been built over the years by the many students and staff members who have worked at Washington. I hope that each of you been able to be a part of, and a contributor to, the program at Washington High. Your experience should be both enjoyable and productive and, I hope, most memorable in the years to come.

If this first year is any indication of things to come for the WHS class of 1986, they should be looking forward to three more super years of high school.

The year started out with the elections. Nineteen brave souls ran for the four offices and over half the class came out to vote for them.

Spirit week followed, the freshmen took us back in time to the 1950's for a football game. Their game came complete with a cheering crowd, touchdowns, spastic Mission Cheerleaders, and of course the winning Huskies. For their efforts the freshmen received an outstanding third place.

HUSKY

The Husky Award is considered by many to be the greatest honor that is given at Washington High School. Each year it is awarded to ten outstanding seniors for service and dedication to the school. This year Student Council nominated about thirty deserving seniors for the award and these students completed a form about themselves for a committee of judges. This committee, comprised of Mr. Stelle, Mr. Lane, Mrs. Polland, Mr. Stull, Mrs. Real, and Junior Class President Jennifer Overman selected the final ten. The winners have worked hard for Washington over the past four years, each being involved in a variety of activities, from athletics and clubs to scholastic achievement and student government. Out of so many fantastic seniors this year, it was difficult to narrow the choices down to only ten, but the decision had to be made. These then ten people have certainly been an honor to their school, and it is lucky that WHS can thank and honor them with an award like the Husky Award. The award winners for 1983 are Natalie Beauchene, Paula Bond, Allison Hottle, Debbie Johns, Kim Lawrence, Kathy Mayes, Kristin McGuire, Ed Ruben, Bunny Sarmiento, and Diane Sato.

Okay, the HUSKIES are tired of being pushed around. Always feeling this way, the 1982-83 WASHINGTON HIGH BOYS VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM shows it. Exploding in pre-season with a 13-2 record, they steadily climb up the East Bay rankings. With the promise of a championship contender, the HUSKIES depend heavily on team efforts, instead of relying on "the big man". Sporting an impressive starting line-up as well as a sturdy bench, this HUSKY team has brought back the excitement that has been badly missed at Washington. The team's consistency includes the work of veteran HUSKIES Tom CORDANO and Rod CAMPBELL. Back for their second year are Jeff SCHRIEBER, Don PARKER, Art MCOMBER, and Scott STANFORD. Up from JV'S are David LIM, Kris SMITH, Chris MARTINEZ, Chris NOMURA, and Jeff HENDERSON. The lone rookie as a HUSKY is freshman Dano SCHRIEBER.

Rod vs. Raymond

Chris N. on DEFENSE vs. Minamide.

On Monday, January 10, our HUSKIES entered American High School knowing they were in for a tough game. Last year the Eagles embarrassed Washington during the regular season, but with this year's tremendous improvement, all had forgotten that encounter to concentrate on this year's Eagles. Falling behind for just the first 2 baskets, the HUSKIES impressively defeated American 57-48, with the support of a HUSKY invasion in Eagle territory (making their home game our home game). The pride and togetherness of the team and fans could not be described with mere words . . .

Final score - HUSKIES on top.

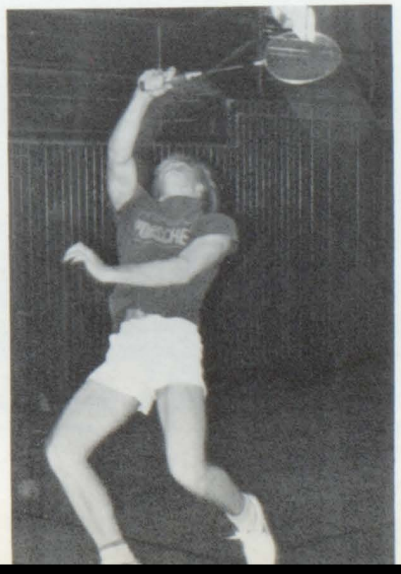
DEVOTED FAN



STATISTICIANS

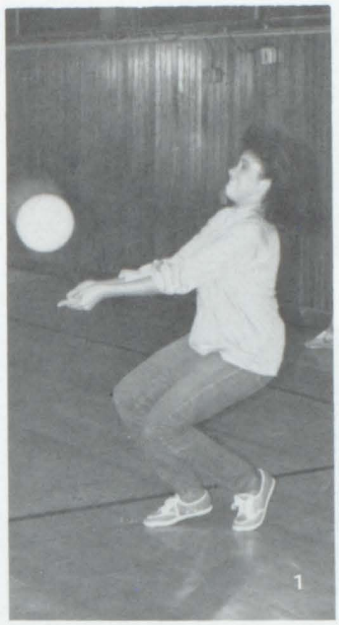
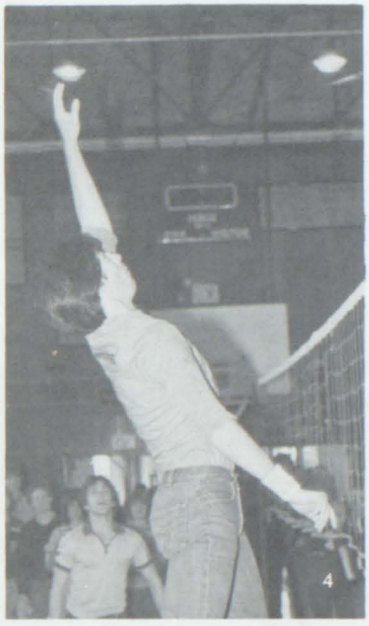
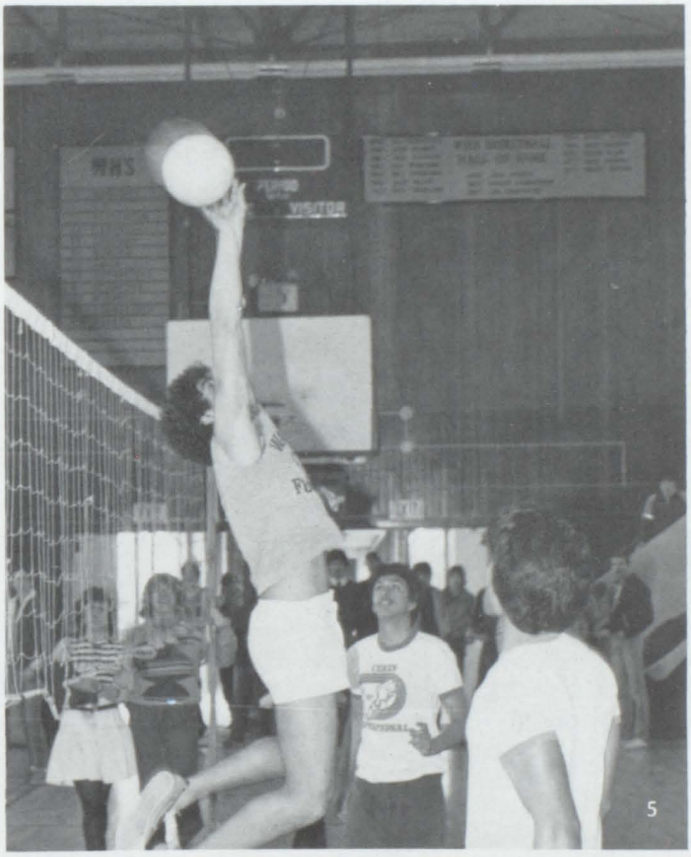
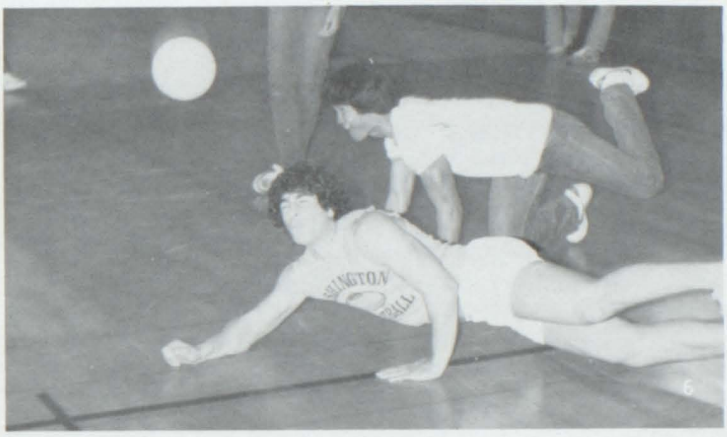
An important part of after school sports sometimes is overlooked. The spotlight is on the playing field or court, but some of the credit should go to those who make it all official: the statisticians. They have the responsibility of making sure that all the action is recorded on paper, so that the coaches know exactly where improvements are needed, and where they are not. This page is dedicated to those who make it all possible. (This Bud's for you.)









Winding up the volleyball games. Mr. Fred Brower's A-period defeated Mr. Bob Sinnock's A-period 21-15 to win the first intramural volleyball 1 championships.

In all 30 A-periods competed in the games, and according to Mr. Steve Mangini, "It was a real success, especially when it was rainy outside."

1. Tammy Ruth gets ready to set the ball to the front row for a winning slam. 2. Cliff Simms shows his usual train of concentration. 3. A killer serve by Debbie Miller? 4. No one can ever say that Chris Martinez doesn't give his all. 5. Ed Setton the killer spiker. 6. Ed smiles pretty for the camera, as he bites the dust. 7. The proud winning team- Diane Sato, Stacey Silva, Ed Setton, Cliff Simms, Ed Rueben, Ron Salvador, Jeff Silva, and Jeff Schreiber.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to Mr. Brower and all the staff members for their efforts. Brad Mangin deserves special recognition for the excellent job he did as head photographer. Many thanks go to those outside the yearbook class who gave us assistance including Ash Studio and Joe Gosen, contributing photographer. It is my hope that the 1982-1983 Washingtonian brings back happy memories of a great year to all who see it. Thank you.
